Annual Water Main Flushing

Annual water main flushing will happen the week of October 14th-18th in Tremont.

Tremont Commerce Association Meeting

The Tremont Commerce Association's next monthly meeting will be held at the Community Center on October 17th at 12PM. We welcome all business owners or representatives to join us as we hear from Cameron Horn, the rural development coordinator from Bradley's Small Business Center, discussing the resources available to small businesses in our area. Whether you're thinking of starting a business or want tools to help you navigate the ever-changing markets, this will be an awesome resource.

Lunch is provided for $8. To reserve your spot, please email
tremontcommerceassociation@gmail.com.

Sampson Street Revitalization

Update #1

We are making progress on our makeover of the Sampson St/Walnut intersection. If you haven't been downtown lately, you have missed seeing the new, finished southeast corner. We now can begin working on the northeast corner as a result of the Village Board deciding to proceed with their improvements. We are hoping we can finish this corner yet this fall. We will need good weather and additional funding.

Tremont Winning Communities is a 501C3 organization, which means your financial gifts are tax deductible. You can donate by mailing a contribution to Tremont Winning Communities, PO Box 76, Tremont, IL 61568 or by going to tremontil.com/donate and making an on-line contribution.

Did you know...?

Old newspapers are informative in more than the ways they were intended. They tell what was considered news at the time and give readers today an insight into a way of life in the past. Below are a few excerpts from the museum's files. By the way, if you have very old newspapers, or clippings from the Tremont area, the Tremont Museum is always interested in receiving them.

From a December 31, 1959 local newspaper:

- A new park shelter was constructed during the summer with tables and plenty of seating space to accommodate family reunions, square dancing, roller skating, etc. Tentative plans call for a provision for ice skating.
- Much corn is being marketed this week; the price having gone up to 90 cents per bushel for No. 3.

Unknown date, local newspaper

- The weather prophets are having a hard time of it this winter. It keeps them busy making excuses for their mistakes.

From an Oct. 20 1911, local newspaper

- Miss Edith Cottingham was a Pekin visitor Saturday.
- Mrs. M. Shurtliff was a Bloomington visitor Monday.

Unknown date, local newspaper

- Those who figured potatoes were going to be so high priced that everyone could not afford to eat them, find they were mistaken. Dealers are now offering them at 85 cents per bushel.
- Krumreig is learning to run the automobile that he purchased of Dr. Cody. He is able to keep it between the fences on the road now and will soon be an expert.
